

Victoria Police Blue Ribbon Foundation Police Officer of the Year Award - Nomination Form

The Victoria Police Blue Ribbon Foundation Police Officer of the Year Award recognises outstanding service by members of Victoria Police in supporting their communities. The recipient of this prestigious award will have demonstrated valuable and sustained contributions above and beyond their normal duties that have resulted in valuable contributions to a particular program, organisation or the community in general. Nominees must be current, sworn members of Victoria Police. Nominations can be initiated by colleagues and/or members of the community. In addition to completing the information below, supporting testimonials from other persons or groups will facilitate the selection process.
